Mr. Buckingham, representing Fairbanks, Morse & Co., manufacturers of gasoline-distillate geared hoists and engines, spent several days in town this week.

In the justice court today the charge against J. B. Butler, for stealing chickens was dismissed for want of sufficient evidence. Cooper, the colored man, was also discharged.

Dan Sullivan and E. C. Reed who left here last fall, are now located at Jarilla, N. M., where they have a lease on a copper claim, and from which they have shipped 12 car loads of ore, and made some money.

E. L. Shaw, of Safford, formerly with Solomon & Wickersham, now with the San Antonio Brewing company, and H. F. Kaufman a member of that company, are in town for the purpose of reintroducing their beer in this community.

J. W. Ransom left this morning for Los Angeles to remain six weeks, and will then go to Buffalo, N. Y., to be present at the opening of the Pan American Exposition. Buffalo is Mr. Ransom's old home and he will probably remain there most of the coming summer.

Col. Jas. A. Fleming was in from Black Warrior yesterday. The resumption of the Black Warrior plant is dependent upon receipt of coal and there seems to be no prospect of obtaining any so long as the coal strike continues.

Rev. Frank W. Downs, of Safford, who was formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in this place, will be here tomorrow and remain on Sunday. He is expected to preach on Sunday and address the open meeting of the Good Templars and their friends, in the church on Monday night at 8 o'clock.

George E. Porter who is now mining in Lost gulch, had the misfortune to cut the ends off of his first two fingers on his left hand, while chopping wood on Wednesday.

William Gravelle has leased the Globe Bakery to W. T. W. Curt, and has also given him an option to purchase the business. Mr. Gravelle will probably go out on a prospecting trip, but will still make Globe his home.

MRS. CORNELIA ANDERSON.

Undertaker E. L. Jones, while engaged in erecting monuments at the cemetery recently, had the misfortune to strain the muscles of his back to such an extent as to prevent his moving about, for some days, except with the use of a cane.

Mrs. L. H. Trim arrived from Clifton on Monday night, and is stopping at the Globe House, where she will remain until Mr. Trim arrives, which will be in about ten days. Mr. Trim recently sold some mining property near Clifton, receiving $15,000 therefor.

President Wm. Garland, of the G. V. & N. Ry. Co., spent yesterday here, and left this morning in company of B. F. Pascoe and A. Trojanovich to examine the proposed route for a wagon road from Cutter siding to Troy copper camp, and if found feasible the road will be built. The distance is about 22 miles.

The school trustees have arranged for the construction of a foot bridge over the railroad west of Pinal creek, for the convenience of the school children. The trustees have also secured the right-of-way for approaches to the bridge from all the property owners on the hill except one and he is expected to give his consent. There will be nearly enough money remaining in the fund for the erection of the primary school buildings to pay for the bridge.

Mr. J. B. Mearns of Boston, and Mr. J. P. Prince of Lexington, Mass., secretary and attorney of the Troy Copper company, arrived in town Wednesday night, and will leave for the Troy camp tomorrow morning, in company with Supt. C. H. Cutting and mine foreman Thomas Kavanaugh. Mrs. Mearns and daughter, and Mrs. Prince accompany these gentlemen, going to Troy with them, where Mrs. Mearns and daughter will probably remain for some time as guests of Mrs. Cutting.

The home of C. H. Tewilliger on the hill back of the Wilson boarding house, opposite O. D. smelter, was burned last Saturday and nothing saved of the contents except a trunk. The floor and walls of the structure were of lumber, and roof canvas, and it was comfortably furnished. Several persons went to Mrs. Tewilliger's assistance and one man who pulled down a part of the canvas roof on his head had the crown of his hat burned and hair and whiskers singed.

A DARING ROBBERY.

B. F. Hoyt, the Railroad Agent, Held Up by Two Unknown Men.

A daring and successful hold-up took place last Monday evening, the victim being B. F. Hoyt, the local agent of the G. V. & N. railroad.

After fixing up his cash, Mr. Hoyt, as had been his custom, left the depot about 8 o'clock by local time, intending to go to the Old Dominion Commercial company's store to deposit the day's receipts. On his way he entered the railroad company's privy, situated about 75 yards from the depot, and within twenty seconds after he entered two men rushed in upon him, the foremost of whom struck him on the head with a rock, felling him to the floor. One of the robbers held Hoyt down while the other took the money away from him, and both then ran, crossing the creek and going up the steep hillside on the trail toward the school house.

Hoyt, dazed from the blows dealt him, ran back to the depot and then started after the robbers and followed them to the top of the hill, where, owing to his weak condition, he was compelled to give up the chase, and returned, having first noted the direction taken by the robbers.

It was fully fifteen minutes before the officers were apprised of the robbery. Sheriff Thompson and Deputy Voris followed in the direction taken by the robber for some distance into the foothills, being out half the night and resumed the search next morning, but owing to the rocky character of the ground trailing was impossible.

The officers found the slip that had been with the money, showing the amount to have been, approximately, $720 in currency, $220 in gold, and $440 in checks. The checks were not taken from Mr. Hoyt, and about $29 in coin was recovered, having been found at the place where Hoyt was attacked.

Suspicion was directed against Bill Webster, of unsavory record, who was absent from his accustomed haunt on the night of the robbery, and did not put in an appearance until one o'clock in the morning. On Tuesday afternoon Webster was found by Town Marshal Middleton and Bob McMurray in the basement of his father's lodging house and was taken into custody and is now in jail awaiting a hearing. Webster has been identified by Mr. Hoyt as the man who first struck him, and is quite positive in that belief.

Mr. Hoyt's injuries were quite painful, the most serious being to his back, caused he thinks, by one of his assailants jumping on him after he fell. However, he has been able to be about and is improving.

Draught beer always on tap at C. E. Taylor's place.

William K. Butler and wife, father and mother of William H. Butler, in the employ of H. C. Hitchcock, left this morning for San Diego, Cal., and will remain away during the summer in hopes of benefiting Mr. Butler's health, which is very poor at this time.

W. J. Lloyd, topographic surveyor, and party of the U. S. geological survey, who have been working on the Globe sheet since last October finished up on Wednesday, and Mr. Lloyd will leave tomorrow morning for Washington to put his field notes in shape and get the map ready for the engraver. During the five months that the party were here they covered 250 square miles on a scale of one inch and a half to the mile, contour interval fifty feet. As soon as Mr. Lloyd has completed the office work in Washington, Mr. Ransom, geologist, will come to Globe to make a study of and report upon the economic geology and ore deposits in this district. The work being done in the west by the geological survey is very interesting and should prove a valuable aid to the future development of our vast mineral resources.

A recent New York dispatch says: The statement is made by an insider that Messrs. Rogers and Lewisohn, with other disaffected stockholders of the smelters company, are now in a position to act independently, and that they have decided to build smelters in various districts to compete with the present combination. It is pointed out that a new concern could locate plants advantageously and equip them with modern machinery, as well as make good transportation arrangements for their prospects. According to information received by Denver investors in stock of the American Smelting company, the above report is confirmed.
